

Centex Soccer Parents & Fan Code of Conduct

1. Children have more need for example than criticism.
2. Attempt to relieve the pressure of the competition, not increase it. A child is easily affected by outside influences.
3. Be kind to your child's coach and officials. The coach is a volunteer, giving of personal time and money to provide a recreational activity for your child.
4. The opponents are necessary friends. Without them, your child could not participate. Applaud good play by your team and members of the opposing team.
5. Do not openly question an official's judgment and honesty. Officials are symbols of fair play, integrity, and sportsmanship.
6. Accept the results of each game. Encourage your child to be gracious in victory, and to turn defeat into victory by working towards improvements.
7. Remember your child is involved in organized sports for their enjoyment, NOT YOURS.
8. Encourage your child to always play by the rules. Learn the rules!
9. Teach your child that honest effort is as important as victory so that the result of each game is accepted without undue disappointments.
